INTRODUCTORY.

OFFICE OF THE CITY DIRECTORY, }
July, 1888. }

In submitting the ninth annual volume of the LEADVILLE CITY DIRECTORY for the inspection and use of the public, we feel confident that it will be received with the same generous favor that has been accorded its predecessors. We have spared neither labor nor expense to make it reliable and useful to our patrons as well as creditable to ourselves and the city, and believe it will be found equally satisfactory, if not superior to our former issues. We are pleased to note the prosperous condition of our mountain city and will take this occasion to return our sincere thanks for courtesies and favors extended to us.
